"The end of man is knowledge, but there is one thing he can't know. He can't know whether knowledge will save him or kill him. He will be killed, all right, but he can't know whether he is killed because of the knowledge which he has got or because of the knowledge which he hasn't got and if he had it, would save him. There's the cold in your stomach, but you open the envelope, you have to open the envelope, for the end of man is to know."

To those who see with wonder in their hearts
And know what glories there can be,
To those who see miraculous sights
And envision all of the wonders hidden from the eye,
To those who hear multitudinous sounds and
Listen to the symphonies that silence brings...

He has expressed the richness of life through his smile.
Who has walked along the beach barefoot?
Who has met others far away in space?
Who has transformed goats' milk into cheese?
Who has waded past the eerie little melody, and harmony?
Who has heard the singing at the door?
Who has eaten with joy and gaiety like everyone?

Senior Week

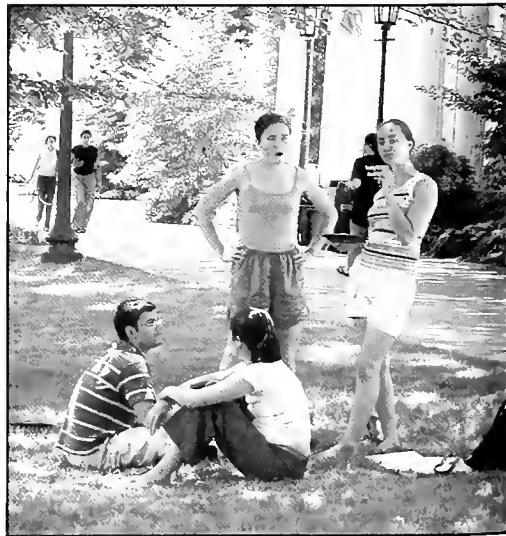

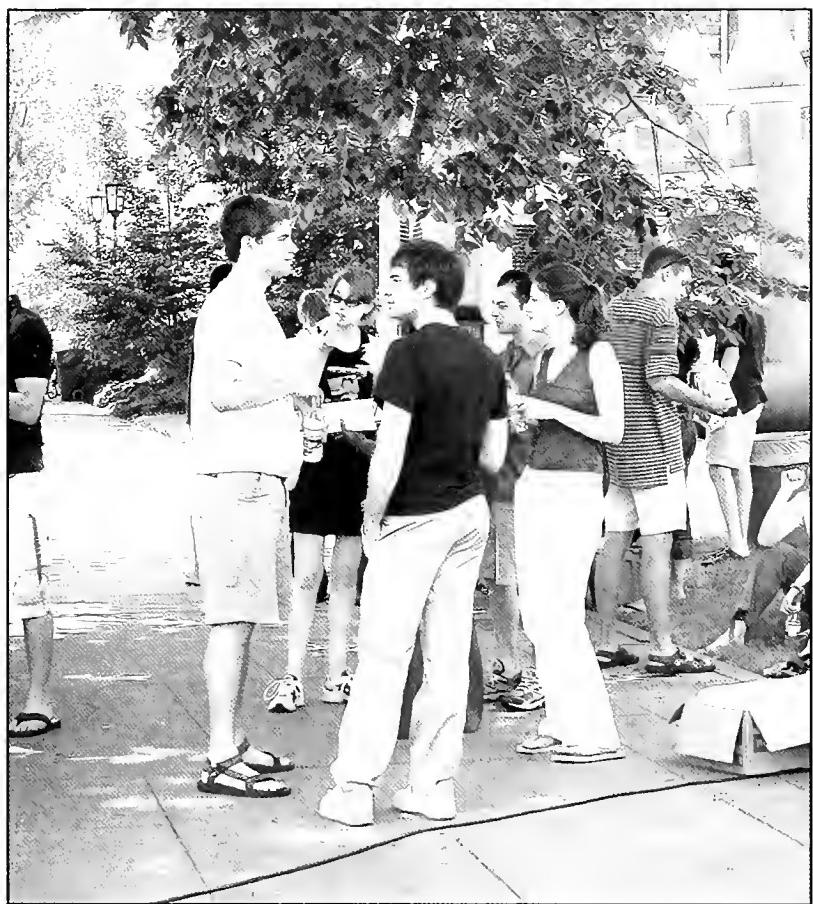

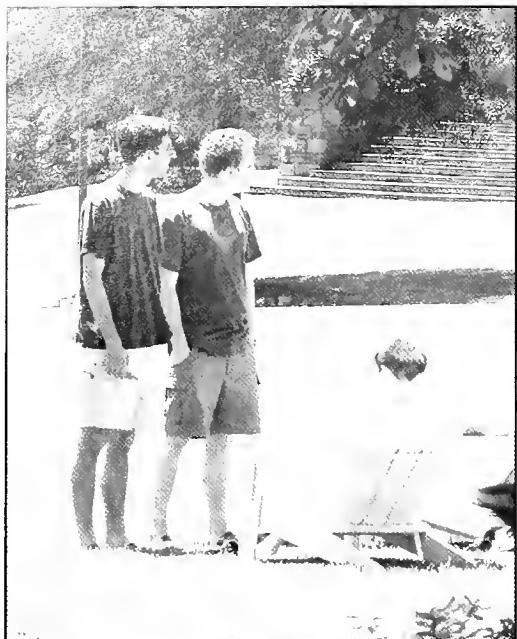

It is the week that every Swarthmore student dreams of--SENIOR WEEK! It is a time to relax and enjoy the ambiance of Swarthmore without having to worry about exams or papers. Take a stroll through the Crum, lounge on the Beach, or wander through Philly with some friends. It is a time to both reminisce about Spec Weekend so long ago and about all the crazy stunts you pulled during your younger years and also a time to form new memories before the Class of 2004 parts. The Senior Class Officers, Matt, Kristina, Njideka, and Carolyn, have designed a fun-filled week sure to be exciting and enjoyable. From trips to Atlantic City, Great Adventure, a Blue Claws game to a Philly Ghost Tour and a Moonlight Cruise, there is something for everyone. Congratulations Class of 2004! Enjoy your time together--you've earned it!

The Halcyon 2004

The Halcyon 2004, the official yearbook of Swarthmore College, was printed in the State College, Pennsylvania plant of Jostens Printing & Publishing Company. Philip Klein served as the publisher's representative, and David Hartnett and Micah Martin as the in-plant coordinators. Carl Wolf Studios of Sharon Hill, Pennsylvania was responsible for the senior portraits, graduation photos, dormitory photos, and athletic photos.

The Halcyon 2004 is 9 by 12 inches, printed on 80-lb. double gloss enamel paper and contains 16 color pages, an 8 page color tip-in, and 120 black and white pages. All pages were produced using Adobe Pagemaker 6.5 and YearTeach 2004. Panoramic photographs were created using Canon Utilities PhotoStitch v3.1 and Adobe Photoshop 7.0.

The Halcyon would like to extend a special thanks to Philip Klein for his assistance as the Jostens representative, Mike Durinzi, representative from Carl Wolf Studios, Jenny Yim, the Student Activities Advisor at Swarthmore College, Geoff Semenuk in the Alumni Relations Office, Sports Information Director Mark Duzenski, and Jeff Traczynski and the Student Budget Committee.
